Mission Statement

The Möhring Group

will become the premier supplier of hardwood products around the world.

We will grow based on a philosophy of quality, service and profitability for ourselves and our business partners.

We will not sacrifice long term relationships for short term profits.

We will remain fluid with the changing business environment and will capitalize on opportunities that present themselves.

We will promote a respectful business environment that is not only conscious of its place in the business world but in the communities in which we operate.

We will promote forest stewardship and be respectful to environmental concerns.

Through the use of this philosophy we seek success for our company, our customers, our communities and our employees.
